A note from your teacher

I cannot wait to create a safe, creative space for every kid who joins my class. Being involved in the arts is an amazing way for your child to express their emotions and exercise their imagination. My biggest goal is to foster the magic of childhood while also teaching children important disciplines in dance and in life in general! I was so fond of my dance teachers growing up and I hope to be the friendly face that your child looks forward to seeing every week. We are going to have so much fun while learning more about the different, creative ways we can move our bodies!
